

a is
for ark

God said there would be a terrible flood all over the earth because of man's sin. He told Noah how to build a huge ark or boat. All the people and animals who would go inside it would be safe.

b is for basket

A little baby called Moses slept in a bulrush basket. It floated on the river, near the bank. His mother had hidden him there. She didn't want the wicked king to find him.

A Bible Alphabet

Introducing little children to well-known Bible stories

This beautifully illustrated book introduces very young readers to some of the great stories and characters from the Bible, including Noah and the ark, David and Goliath, and Daniel in the lions' den. Also available from the Trust is A Bible Alphabet Activity Book, containing 26 large format tear-out sheets which young children will enjoy colouring-in and completing.

A former primary school teacher, Alison Brown lives with her husband and family in Co. Fermanagh, Northern Ireland. While enjoying the privilege of spending years at home with her five growing children, she has continued to develop her drawing style. A deepening awareness of the need for every child to build his life on God's Word, coupled with the pleasure of illustrating for children, has led to the creation of these pages...

that they might set their hope in God.
